No. 48419 B

COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE

Plaintiff, makes the following complaint for absolute divorce against, Defendant, and states as follows:

I.

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. §36-4-106(b), Plaintiff has filed under seal the parties' statistical information, and further provides as follows:

Husband		Wife
Jeffrey Ryan Fenton	Full Name (and Maiden)	Fawn ██████ Fenton ████████
1986 Sunny Side Drive Brentwood, TN 37027	Mailing Address	████████████████████ Brentwood, TN 37027
24 years	Length of Residence in TN	20 years
October 8, 1969 Washington	Date and Place of Birth	January 22, 1973 Nevada
Caucasian	Race	Caucasian
3	Number of this marriage	2
Divorce	How did prior marriages end	Divorce
12	Years of Education	16
Unemployed	Employer Name and Address	Addisson & Associates Architects, Inc. 3322 West End Avenue, Suite 103 Nashville, TN 37203

The parties were married on October 16, 2005 in Davidson County, Tennessee.

Plaintiff has resided in the State of Tennessee more than six (6) months preceding the filing of this complaint. The acts complained of were committed while the Plaintiff was a bona fide resident of Tennessee.

II.

There are no children born of this marriage.

III.

Plaintiff would show that the parties have been experiencing difficulties in their marriage and all attempts at reconciliation have failed, thus rendering the marriage irreconcilably broken. Plaintiff requests that she be granted a divorce based on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, or in the alternative, if the parties are unable to reach an amicable agreement, then Plaintiff requests that she be granted a divorce on grounds of inappropriate marital conduct.

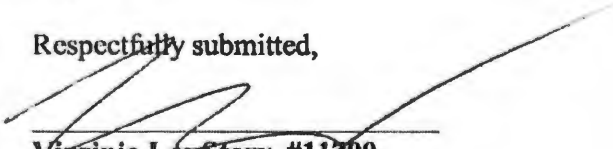

IV.

Plaintiff would show that the parties have no assets other than personal property which has been divided with the exception of a few items. Husband and Wife have lived separately since April 2018. Husband refuses to work and has not paid the mortgage payment or assisted with the mortgage payment or the bills of the home. Wife has spoken to Husband and made every attempt to have the house listed and Husband previously agreed in 2018 but then refused. Wife cannot continue to pay the mortgage payment and allow Husband to stay in the house without financial help. Husband has rented two of the bedrooms out and he retains the rent. Husband ran up over $10,000 in credit card debt in Wife's name. Wife has now had to file bankruptcy to manage the debt accrual which debt all in her name as Husband has not any credit since 2016. Wife requests that the house be sold immediately. Wife requests that she be awarded her attorney's fees.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

1. That Defendant be served and required to answer within the time allowed by law, his oath being waived.
2. That Plaintiff be awarded an absolute divorce from Defendant and be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.
3. That the Court approve a Marital Dissolution Agreement, if entered into between the parties; or, in the alternative if the parties cannot reach an agreement, that the Court make an equitable distribution of the parties' real and personal property and the parties' debts.
4. That the Plaintiff be awarded reasonable attorneys fees; and that costs be taxed to Defendant.
5. For all other relief this Court may deem proper.

AFFIDAVIT OF LORI POLK

COUNTY OF WILLIAMSON)

Comes now, LORI POLK, after being duly sworn, does state as follows:

1. I am over 18 years of age and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. I am a private process server in the State of Tennessee.
3. On June 5, 2019, I was retained by Virginia Story to personally serve the Summons and Complaint in the above-captioned matter on Defendant, Jeffrey Ryan Fenton.
4. On June 5, 2019 at 7:49 p.m., I went to Mr. Fenton's home address located at 1986 Sunny Side Drive, Brentwood, TN 37027 to personally serve Mr. Fenton with the Summons and Complaint. I knocked on Mr. Fenton's front door and got no answer. The lights were on inside the house. I knocked on the back door of the residence and got no answer. Some lights came on at the back of the property. I noticed that the property is under video and audio surveillance.
5. On June 6, 2019 at 1:34 p.m., I went to Mr. Fenton's home again to serve the papers. I could not approach the front door as the access to the stairs leading up to the front door and porch was newly chained and had a sign posted stating "No Entry."
6. On June 8, 2019 at 9:04 a.m., I went to Mr. Fenton's home again to serve the papers. I walked partially up the driveway towards the residence and noticed a sign posted on the property. Attached is copy of a photograph of the sign. From both the No Entry sign by the front door and the sign next to the driveway posted by the occupant, it is my belief that Mr. Fenton is avoiding service.

Further Affiant saith not.

My name is Fawn Fenton and I have been married to Jeff Fenton for 13 years. Jeff and I have been separated since April 22, 2018 and I have not seen him since sometime in April when we met to file our taxes. Prior to that I had not seen him since December 2018. I filed for divorce on June 4, 2019.

I am in fear for my safety based on the repeated harassment that has continued to occur. Over the last several weeks Jeff has sent me numerous text messages and lengthy e-mails talking about his intentions on ruining my life, causing me issues with my employer and clients at work, ruining my credit and financially ruining me. As a result of Jeff's continued verbal and emotional abuse and deliberate non-cooperation, I have filed for bankruptcy to preserve my finances. Upon finding out about the bankruptcy petition, Jeff became enraged and his incessant texts and e-mails have been upsetting and vindictive. Just as an example, from June 12 through June 16, Jeff sent me 12 e-mails all of substantial length, describing how he plans on ruining my life. I am attaching just a snapshot of my email account showing the number of e-mails sent from June 12-16. The length of the emails would be too long to attach; however, I have saved them all. In addition, Jeff continues to send me numerous text messages, some very lengthy. In some of the texts he uses derogatory language, calling me a "bitch." On June 14, 2019 he sent me 8 text messages within in less than 40 minutes. The next day, June 15, 2019 he sent me 16 text messages over the course of 4 hours, several of which were extremely lengthy. I have asked Jeff on several occasions to stop e-mailing and texting me, however, he continues to repeatedly harass me. At this point all of his communication to me is not consensual and I have relayed this to Jeff multiple times. On June 15, 2019 Jeff left me a voicemail on my cell phone stating that if I did not call him back or respond to his emails or text messages that he was going to "show up at my work or apartment to try to get some information out of me." I am fearful that he will actually show up at my work, as he has done so in the past and has sabotaged my work e-mails. Jeff has been employed in IT and is very tech savvy. In the past he was able to remotely log into my work computer and delete all e-mails that had his name in them. My company has already spent a considerable amount of money hiring a new IT support team to try and close loopholes and delete Jeff's access to our system, but we are still finding settings that reference Jeff's settings or route to his e-mails. Jeff has also threatened to post derogatory comments anonymously on the internet about both myself and my company. This cyber stalking could potentially cost me my job and career. I am fearful for what he may try to do now that I have filed for divorce and am not responding to his threats.

On June 16, 2019 in one of his lengthy e-mails he stated, "I wish we would have had an asteroid fall on our home and kill us (or at least me)", the day before I discovered your plans to divorce me." Jeff is a licensed gun carrier and has many weapons, and I am in fear of what he may to do me if this continues. Jeff refers to himself as a part of the "extraction team" and lives a very paranoid life. He installed extensive home monitoring at our marital residence including surveillance videos and audio recording systems.

The harassment has caused me undue emotional stress and anxiety. I am unable to sleep well, and his harassment is causing trouble in my day to day life. The continued texting and e-mailing are interfering with my ability to perform my job and I fear that if these things continue that I will reach a point of an emotional breakdown.

Fawn: It doesn't look to me like you QUALIFY for bankruptcy currently.

Is that why you wanted to force your car insurance rates increase so much?

You need to be legally careful about this too! (Perjury/Fraud).

You may have qualified for a little while when you had negative cash-flow, but NOW you don't have negative cash-flow anymore. Instead, according to the numbers you gave me a few weeks ago, you should have a positive cash flow of $400 - $500 per month currently, which you could use to pay down your debt.

That explains the long delay, lack of excitement, and anger which you showed when I informed you that I had transferred the utilities into my name and taken over paying for them.

Now you are ethically on THIN ICE, once again!

Now that I told my tenants about you filing bankruptcy, they are freaking out and are "keeping their eyes open" for another place to live. The financial relief that I'm giving you right now, of around $1k per month, is holding nothing back for myself. If either one of my tenants bale, then I'll need more financial help from you to survive until both our bankruptcies and the divorce are finalized.

My tenants want to know if you are filing Chapter 7 or Chapter 13?

Are the mortgages paid current?

Are you including dumping our home in your bankruptcy?

They need reassurance, if you want their continued financial help.

Nobody is interested in living without any security, which is how you like to keep everyone who in any way depends upon you.

Are we transferring the utilities and car insurance back to you, and having you pay for my consumables again? I have no cash flow except for my tenants, which you are threatening now.

We need you to let us know what you are doi ng, what you have planned now with this property, and how long we have to live here before it is all yanked away again?

Otherwise I want to trade you AGAIN for an apartment, and we can let this house go!

Otherwise I'll have no choice but an interim order, in order to survive.

Everything I do to try to help, you sabotage! If you continue to refuse to let me know where we stand, then I'll have no choice but to start calling your creditors and to file litigation to get answers, within the next week.

Chris asked me to just ASK YOU what is going on, what he can rely upon, and what he should expect. As I had to explain to him AGAIN, that you REFUSE to communicate, unlike his ex, that you will not allow us to have ANY IDEA until it swallows us up! It is reaching the point of you becoming financially and legally liable for transgressions reaching far beyond our divorce.

You refuse to allow me to survive without you!

We need some answers please!

2. Long message.txt

You completely sabotaged our marriage, out of nowhere, within a couple of months. Then you ruined your own life, within a single year, filing for bankruptcy, while making the best money of your life (which I got for you). Now you are out to take everything that's left of mine, which I have spent my life working for! I would be infinitely better off, if I had never met you!

YOU ARE POISON!

I tried to teach you to have HOPE and to DREAM with me. Now you are out to punish me for ever dragging you out of your dreary pit!

I don't know why I've spent so many years trying to protect you from the consequences of the horror which you have become!

You have raped and stolen everything that I ever had! Everything that I once had worked for, a decade before even meeting you! Everything that I spent the past 15 years trying to hold onto, between your volatile mood swings. Then when I had nothing left for you to feed on, you threw me away like yesterday's trash! While claiming not to have loved me for over a year! What sort of savage are you?

I think you need to be seriously tested for having bi-polar personality disorder, like your uncle. That is a familial plague, when not treated.

I know of no other reason, for your completely irrational, uncompassionate, self-destructive behavior!

When you once were almost completely logic driven and goal focused like me! Where you didn't GET IN YOUR OWN WAY to success.

Now you are willing to kill yourself and everyone around you, simply to reach something which you had before meeting me, and you were never happy with.

I realized that once you had the house of your dreams (and quit thanking God daily for it), then the aquarium of your dreams, which I should have never allowed, as it sucked the life right out of us, and finally the car of your dreams, while you were more miserable than ever, that NOTHING WAS EVER GOING TO MAKE YOU HAPPY! That you had no clue what you really wanted. That you had betrayed a decade of my life, trying to give you the desires of your heart, while you were ready to burn it all down within a single day! That I had erred in my pursuits, by seeking to add value to anyone's life other than my own.

Then somehow in YOUR MIND, you became the martyr, as you destroyed everything which we had both spent our lives building!

I have fought and fought, trying to prevent you from destroying everything which we had both worked decades for, in hope's that someday when you are sane again (after menopa

(after menopause), there would be something left to return to. Yet you refuse to allow it! You WON'T leave ANY door open, through which to return!
In a little over a year, you have completely destroyed both of our lives!
What I sarcastically suggested in jest, upon learning of your betrayal of everything that I loved and lived for; suggesting that we burn our house down, since neither of us was fit or deserving of the labors, life, hopes, and dreams of the other, would now have been far better than where we both stand today!
What a sad and tragic end that your family's pride has brought upon our union. I hope that at the end of the day, you can look at your tiny apartment at 45 years old, while making almost a hundred grand per year, and thinking that this is as good as it is going to get, for the rest of your life. That your life has already hit its peak and is rapidly in decline. When with me all of our best years were still ahead of us, but you took a hand grenade to them all!
We needed a surgeons scalpel, and instead you chose a hand grenade. Now we are both forced to live maimed with the consequences, of what persuing your dreams, with an instable and uncommitted partner, costs!
I hope you remember, that WE ALMOST MADE IT! Before you pulled the pin and angrily threw the grenade to the floor. WE ALMOST MADE IT TOOTIE!
I see no evidence of anything that was worth it, in the past 15 years of my life now.
The only thing of substance which has walked out of it all with me, is Tweetie. The rest I will all see burning on the horizon as walk away!
That's the one side of me which you have yet to see, which you keep begging for, but I doubt you will like.
When I finally GIVE UP! I walk away, even if carrying nothing. And I REFUSE to ever look back, as my very survival depends upon it.
We've gotten close, but never quite made it. Now I feel us getting close again, but I promise you on that day, though you may consider it a victory in advance, you will never remember that moment as such. While you will never have less and feel emptier than in that day, which you absolutely demanded come to pass. It brings tears to my eyes just knowing what you are forcing to be, having been there before myself and realizing the weight of that destiny defining choice.
Before I was always harder when forced to travel that road, now I don't even know if I have the strength to live through it. Yet regardless, the clock is ticking and you are as determined as ev

I will stay here until you, the banks, and the police carry me out of here. While they carry truckloads of old junk and my treasures out into the lawn. Where it and I will stay as neighbors stare and news crews broadcast, about what has become of this man abandoned and betrayed by his wife, losing his life's savings, with no retirement, very little social security, with everything he has left in his life, sitting out on the lawn with me, getting rained on, rusting, blowing around, as Williamson County tries to figure out what to do with this man and all his STUFF, with nowhere to go and no means of reastically supporting himself. Devastated by the betrayal of a "successful" woman, his wife, who couldn't steward her vocational success well enough to prevent her from self-destructing. Teaching us again that allowing a woman in a man's place, is a recipe for destruction. They haven't the strength, the tenacity, the humility, the love, to financially support others in their family, without feeling victimized, and taken advantage of, though men have been doing that for hundred's of years. Women want equality... yeah! Nobody on Earth wants equality! Everyone wants privelege! Well now you have the privelege of destroying both of our lives, and you seem hell bent to continue until we are on the nightly news. So then shall it be. You break my heart! You absolutely refuse to share anything with me.

Why was I never notified about the IRS claim for 2015, 2016, and 2017? I've been asking for weeks about our 2017 refund which never showed up, yet you told me that you hadn't heard anything from the IRS.

The Proof of Claim filed by the Internal Revenue Service contains estimates for 2015, 2016, and 2017 Form 1040 Taxes in the amount of $15,910.36, including penalties and interest. The income transcripts for 2015, 2016, and 2017 Form 1040 tax return, attached hereto, have not been processed by the Internal Revenue Service and reflects a lesser amount owed for that year. The Debtor is owed refunds for 2015 and 2017 and has mailed a payment in the amount of $412.00 to the IRS for 2016.

So I'm confused about a few things, which I'm hoping that you can clear up, without me needing to waste more money on legal help, just to understand:

- Did the $412 you mailed the IRS for 2016, take into account the 2014 & 2015 refunds which they already held in their possession?
- Is there a 2016 return, by which you calculated this amount to mail them?
- Can you please send me a copy of all correspondences with the IRS, since they involve me too?
- Do we still need to complete a return for 2016, or is that no longer necessary?

Regarding the house, I understand that you included both BCS and BOA in your list of creditors, and that they both plan to come to your hearing, but I'm unclear if you are trying to forfeit the house or retain the house through your bankruptcy?

- Are the first and second mortgage payments current?
- Is there anything which I need to be concerned about here?

That was nice that you did not attribute any ownership interest in anything to me... as though I'm not a part owner in the house, ext... and providing no amount for supporting me or my household... and that you listed my gun safe, treadmill, and weight set as your assets. Somehow you left all your art out, but I was surprised to see you disclose most of your guns.

Mostly I'm not angry about this, I'm just confused... and heart broken, that all of this could happen and you never even bothered to mention it to me. That you think that little of me.

I won't try to use any of this against you, or interfere in any way. I'm just sad!

So after your confirmation hearing on 7/15/2019, are you expecting anything to change regarding our possession/ownership of our home? How long after than until you expect the final "discharge of indebtedness", so that I can file. Or don't you even receive a discharge since it is a Chapter 13? Can you please find out how long I need to wait until after your hearing date to file Chapter 7 myself, without putting our home or other marital assets at risk? (Until then, I will be piling up default judgment after default judgment, because it is pointless to fight each of these claims in court.)

I would really appreciate it if you could please answer that question for me. I can see that now even though I'm ready and wanting to file bankruptcy, that I can't until after yours is discharged, because it doesn't allow both spouses to file separately yet simultaneously. So I'm going to need to keep bobbing and weaving for at least another month.

I had the Sheriff's Department here again the other day... the same bald guy as before. I just received two letters from attorneys, one to notify me again about the BCS default judgment again, and another which I have not opened yet. I spent an entire day gathering documentation for Rothschild to file myself, before they realized the conflict of interest, since they are already representing you.

I just can't handle all this turmoil and instability. I need to have some foundation to stand upon, in order for me to proceed. Right now, I have nothing, more literally than ever in my life.

So can you please give me some clue of what to expect here? It may be detailed in the 100+ pages of legal forms attached, but it is all overwhelming to me. I can't waste any more time on all of this right now.

Me and my roommates need to know where we stand.

So after your BK, do you have a plan for the divorce? You've shown absolutely no interest in working together towards a fair MDA. Are you planning another legal ambush, or to let sleeping dogs lie for a bit, or ??? It really is self-defeating to keep me guessing all the time... in the dark.... Because you know that it is impossible for me to move forward and improve myself, when I have nothing in life that I can count on. When I don't know when I'll be legally attached next. When I don't even know how long I'll have a home, before I will be forced into the street.

If I was sitting there with you and another professional which you have some respect for, you would answer reasonable questions like that from them, but for some reason, you absolutely refuse to answer them for me.

No-one in the world will benefit more than you (and me) once I'm vocationally rehabilitated, working full-time in an area of interest and opportunity, and financially independent again! So why won't you offer me the most basic elements of security, like simply INFORMATION, so that I can leave the house and work towards reaching those goals, instead of waiting for years to pass by, expecting me to "do the right thing", while you refuse to provide me with the one simple ingredient necessary, for me to ever do that? Some simple assurance of safety? Some cease fire? Some timeline? Some opportunity to advance, without needing you to provide my basic financial needs?

I hate this whole fucking roller-coaster ride... where you are my opponent, instead of my partner! It was never meant to be this way!

I'm SORRY! I don't know what I could have done differently to prevent this outcome! But I'm so, so sorry that our marriage has ended in the absolute worst way imaginable... with us both broke, with nothing to our names, with no retirement, with us both in bankruptcy.

How could this be worse?

I wish we would have had an asteroid fall on our home and kill us (or at least kill me), the day before I discovered your plans to divorce me.

Jeff Fenton

MOTION TO DEEM HUSBAND SERVED

COMES NOW the Plaintiff/Wife, Fawn [REDACTED] Fenton (hereinafter "Wife"), by and through her attorney of record, Virginia Lee Story, and files this Motion to Deem Husband Served and in support of her Motion, would state as follows:

1. Wife filed her Complaint for Divorce on June 4, 2019.
2. Counsel for Wife hired a private process server, Lori Polk, to attempt personal service on Husband.
3. Ms. Polk attempted to serve Husband at his residence located at 1986 Sunny Side Drive, Brentwood, Tennessee on June 5, June 6, and June 8 to no avail. (See Affidavit of Lori Polk which was previously filed with the Court on June 11, 2019 and is attached to the Affidavit of Reasonable Efforts filed simultaneously with this Motion.)
4. Husband has installed numerous cameras around the home and posted a "No Trespassing" sign on the property. (Photo of sign is attached to Affidavit of Lori Polk.)
5. After Ms. Polk communicated that she was unable to serve Husband at the marital residence, counsel for Wife attempted service via certified mail as stated below. Counsel also mailed via U.S. first-class mail a copy of the Complaint which has not been returned by the post office. Based upon the numerous emails and texts from Husband to Wife, it is clear that Husband is aware of the Complaint and he is avoiding service. A copy of the Complaint has also been sent to Husband via email.

6. A file-stamped copy of the Summons and Complaint for Divorce was sent to Husband via certified mail, return receipt requested, on June 11, 2019. On June 17, 2019, counsel for Wife received the return receipt for the certified mail which had been signed. The signature on the return receipt is that of an adult roommate who is currently residing with Husband.

7. Wife believes that Husband is trying to evade service.

8. That Husband be deemed served pursuant to Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure 4.04(1) which states that service is made:

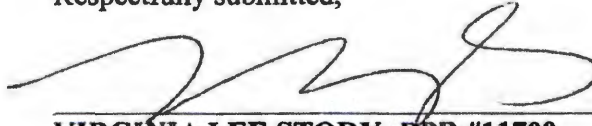

Upon an individual other than an unmarried infant or an incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the individual personally, or if he or she evades or attempts to evade service, by leaving copies thereof at the individuals dwelling or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein, whose name shall appear on the proof of service, or by delivering the copies to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service on behalf of the individual served.

9. That Wife has also filed an Alias Summons on June 11, 2019 requesting that service on Defendant be attempted by the Sheriff's Department. To date, the Sheriff's Department has not been successful in serving Defendant.

10. That counsel for Wife has made all attempts to obtain personal service on Defendant to no avail. (See Affidavit of Reasonable Efforts attached hereto as Exhibit 1.)

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Wife respectfully requests that this Court grant her Motion to Deem Husband Served and that she be awarded her attorney fees for having to bring this Motion.

2. On June 4, 2019, I filed a Complaint for Divorce on behalf of my client, Fawn ██████████ Fenton.
3. That I have sent a file-stamped copy of the Summons and Complaint to Defendant on June 12, 2019 via certified mail.
4. That I received a signed return receipt for the Summons and Complaint on June 17, 2019.
5. That upon information and belief the signature on the return receipt is that of an adult roommate that is currently residing with Defendant. Pursuant to Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure if a party is avoiding service, the service may be accepted by an adult living in the home.
6. That I have also attempted personal service via a private process server, Lori Polk, who attempted service on three separate occasions to Defendant's residence to no avail (see attached Affidavit of process server). After the process was attempted, Husband posted signs that he would prosecute those entering the property.
7. The Defendant is clearly evading service of the Summons and Complaint for Divorce. In 2018, Plaintiff filed for Divorce and Defendant avoided service for several months costing her enormous expense and wasting considerable time. The Defendant has installed video

MOTION TO SELL THE MARITAL RESIDENCE

COMES NOW the Plaintiff/Wife, Fawn [REDACTED] Fenton (hereinafter "Wife"), by and through her attorney of record, Virginia Lee Story, and files this Motion to Sell the Marital Residence and in support of her Motion, would state as follows:

1. Wife filed her Complaint for Divorce against Husband on June 4, 2019.
2. As of the date of the filing of this Motion, Husband has not filed an Answer to the Complaint for Divorce.
3. Wife currently has an Ex Parte Order of Protection against Husband as the result of the domestic abuse she has incurred by Husband.
4. The marital residence is located at 1986 Sunnyside Drive, Brentwood, Tennessee.
5. Wife has not resided in the marital residence since April 2018 at which time she moved into her own apartment as the living situation at home had gotten unbearable.
6. After Wife moved from the marital residence she continued to pay the mortgage and utilities for the marital residence up until the Spring of 2019 when she could no longer afford to keep paying all of the bills on her own.
7. As the result of her financial constraints, Wife filed for bankruptcy in April 2019. The Trustee has agreed to allow Husband and Wife to sell the marital residence as the house will have sufficient equity to pay off the first and second mortgage holders if it is put on the market and sold immediately. If, however, Husband continues to reside in the home without paying the mortgage, foreclosure proceedings will begin and the parties will be charged late fees, attorney's fees, foreclosure costs and closing costs. If the foreclosure begins, then the parties will have no equity in the property.

8. As part of the bankruptcy agreement Wife agreed to continue paying Bancorp South's second mortgage payments to avoid foreclosure as they would not allow the parties time to list the house through the divorce. Therefore, Wife is paying the second mortgage while Husband lives in the house for free and collects rent from two (2) roommates that he has moved into the home. The balance on the second mortgage is approximately $54,000.00. Bank of America holds the first mortgage with a balance of approximately $240,000.00.
9. Wife tried to convince Husband to put the house in the market in the fall of 2018 as finances were getting tighter, however, Husband would not agree on anything and Wife believes that Husband will again try and do whatever he can in order to stall this process.
10. Husband has threatened Wife, previously making the following statements:

"I promise you, it will cost you more if we sell than if we don't!" and "I will not fix it up for sale, and I will not live in it while it's on the market." (Text message July 27, 2018)

"If you choose to fight me on this, I will leverage every penny of this home which I legally can, plus it's future value to leave it in my will to whomever will fund my legal battle with you, no matter how complex the case, or how many appeals that it requires." (Text message March 27, 2019).

"I will work and fight to my death, to never allow you or anyone else to TAKE this property from me...." (Text message May 25, 2019).

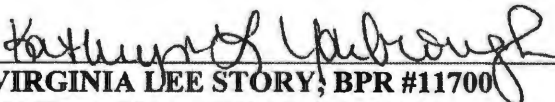

“I will stay here until you, the banks, and the police carry me out of here.” (Text messages, June 15, 2019)

- 11. Wife is unsure what all modifications and/or renovations Husband has done to the home since she left in April 2018. Prior to her leaving, Husband had installed numerous security cameras and devices in the home and has rented out rooms to various individuals. Wife is concerned that Husband may be devaluing the home by making undesirable changes to the property.
- 12. Wife believes the home to be valued at approximately $425,000.00. The Williamson County Property Assessor values the home at $386, 900.00. A similar home across the street, 1987 Sunny Side Drive) sold for $524,900.00 in April 2018. Therefore, the sale of the home is likely to easily pay off both of the mortgages and still leave the parties some equity.
- 13. Pursuant to the terms of Wife’s bankruptcy, if the home is not placed on the market in a timely manner, then one or both of the mortgage holders may begin foreclosure proceedings and the parties will lose all available equity in the property.
- 14. Husband has made it very clear that he will do whatever he can to thwart any effort of Wife to sell the home.
- 15. Because time is of the essence, Wife requests that this Court order that Husband immediately vacate the premises so that the home can be prepared for sale.
- 16. Wife requests that this Court order the home to be sold by an independent third-party auctioneer to obtain the best sales price in a time efficient manner.
- 17. Wife would further request that she be reimbursed from the equity for the mortgage payments that she has made since vacating since April 2018 and that after the repayment of the first and second mortgage, that any remaining equity from the sale of mortgage payments that she has made since vacating the home in April 2018 and that after the repayment of the first and second mortgage, that any remaining equity from the sale of the home be placed in the trust account of attorney for Wife until a distribution can be negotiated or further ordered from the Court.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Wife respectfully requests that this Court grant her Motion to Sell the Marital Residence and that she be awarded her attorney fees for having to bring this Motion.

HUSBAND'S RESPONSE TO WIFE'S MOTION TO SELL MARITAL RESIDENCE

COMES NOW the Defendant/Husband, Jeffrey Ryan Fenton, by and through his attorneys of record, Charles M. Duke and Mitchell Miller, and for Response to Wife's Motion to Sell the Marital Residence, would respectfully request that the hearing on the motion be continued for a short period of time, due to the fact that undersigned counsel only has been retained to represent the Defendant/Husband as of the filing date required of this response, the same being July 29, 2019, and an Agreed Order of Substitution of Counsel is being filed concurrently herewith regarding the same. Therefore, counsel for the Defendant would respectfully submit that additional time is necessary for undersigned counsel to review the matter fully and meet with their client, so as to fully and completely respond to a motion that will have such enormous bearing on the parties moving forward in this matter. Should the Court not allow a short continuance, and deem the hearing shall go forward as scheduled on August 1, 2019, for response to the Motion to Sell the Marital residence, Defendant would state and show as follows:

1. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of Paragraph 1 of the motion are admitted
2. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of Paragraph 2 of the motion are admitted.

3. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of Paragraph 3 are admitted, to the extent that Plaintiff has taken out an Order of Protection against the Defendant. Defendant denies that he has committed any form of domestic abuse. Defendant avers that the Ex Parte Order of Protection is baseless, and that Plaintiff acted for improper purposes when she applied for that Order. Defendant would show that the Temporary Restraining Order, automatically binding on both parties pursuant to T. C. A. §36-4-106 upon the commencement of this cause, prohibits the parties from harassing, threatening, assaulting or abusing each other, that such prohibition adequately protects both parties' interests, and that Defendant has complied with the Temporary Restraining Order.
4. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of Paragraph 4 of the motion are admitted.
5. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of Paragraph 5 of the motion are admitted, with the exception that Defendant denies that the situation had become "unbearable." Defendant avers that Plaintiff, in fact, deserted the Defendant, when Defendant did not have the ability or means to support himself or pay for the first and second mortgage on the marital residence.
6. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of Paragraph 6 of the motion are admitted, with the exception that Defendant avers that Plaintiff chose voluntarily to burden herself with rent payments and utilities for a separate residence so as to desert the Defendant when, in fact, she could have continued living at the marital residence. In addition, Defendant avers that he currently pays the utilities for the marital residence, and that Plaintiff has the ability to pay certain household bills for the marital residence, as the financially advantaged spouse, but instead chooses not to do so. In support, Defendant would show the Court that Plaintiff filed for bankruptcy in April 2019 and reported having gross monthly income of Seven Thousand Five Hundred dollars ($7,500.00), after-tax-deduction income of Five Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-Five dollars and four cents ($5,845.04), actual expenses of Three Thousand Twenty-Five dollars ($3,025.00), leaving a monthly net income of Two Thousand Eight Hundred Twenty dollars and four cents ($2,820.04). Plaintiff's Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy is incorporated and attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

7. For the purposes of responding to the motion solely, the averments of sentence one of Paragraph 7 of the motion are admitted. Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information so as to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of sentence two of Paragraph 7 of the motion and, therefore, denies same, and demands strict proof thereof. Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information so as to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of sentences three and four of Paragraph 7 of the motion and, therefore, denies same in their entirety, and demands strict proof thereof. Defendant respectfully avers that he must continue to reside in the marital residence at this time, as he has no other choices for a residence, nor any funds to secure an alternative residence, due to being deserted by the Plaintiff and her refusal to continue to pay the mortgage on the marital residence, the one viable marital asset, so as to maximize any possible return to the parties if they were allowed to sell the residence by reasonable means as opposed to some sort of "fire sale," as requested by the Plaintiff herein.
8. Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information so as to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 8 of the motion and, therefore, denies same in their entirety, and demands strict proof thereof. Defendant admits that, currently, he has two individuals renting rooms in the marital residence, so as to be in a position to pay utilities and monthly expenses he must now solely pay due to being deserted by the Plaintiff. Defendant respectfully avers that he must continue to reside in the marital residence at this time, as he has no other choices for a residence, nor any funds to secure an alternative residence, due to being deserted by the Plaintiff and her refusal to continue to pay the mortgage on the marital residence, the one viable marital asset, so as to maximize any possible return to the parties if they were allowed to sell the residence by reasonable means as opposed to some sort of "fire sale," as requested by the Plaintiff herein.

9. Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information so as to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 9 of the motion and, therefore, denies same in their entirety. Defendant respectfully avers that he must continue to reside in the marital residence at this time, as he has no other choices for a residence, nor any funds to secure an alternative residence, due to being deserted by the Plaintiff and her refusal to continue to pay the mortgage on the marital residence, the one viable marital asset, so as to maximize any possible return to the parties if they were allowed to sell the residence by reasonable means as opposed to some sort of "fire sale," as requested by the Plaintiff herein.

10. Defendant denies the averments of Paragraph 10 of the motion and, further, objects to the characterizations of Plaintiff of them as "threats." Defendant admits that he objects and opposes to the marital residence being sold at this time, and in the fashion, sought by the Plaintiff, as Defendant has no other viable means for housing at this time, and, as a Tenant by the Entirety of the marital residence, Defendant respectfully submits he should be allowed to remain in the marital residence while this litigation is pending Defendant respectfully avers that he must continue to reside in the marital residence at this time, as he has no other choices for a residence, nor any funds to secure an alternative residence, due to being deserted by the Plaintiff and her refusal to continue to pay the mortgage on the marital residence, the one viable marital asset owned by these parties, so as to maximize any possible return to the parties if they were allowed to sell the residence by reasonable means, as opposed to some sort of "fire sale," as requested by the Plaintiff herein.

11. Plaintiff's allegation and concerns that Defendant is devaluing the home are unfounded. Installing security devices would tend to secure, not devalue the home. Moreover, merely renting rooms to tenants does not indicate any misuse, waste, or devaluation. To the contrary, rental income from these tenants provides Defendant a means to maintain the property.
12. Defendant generally agrees with Plaintiff's assessment of the home's value and sale potential and believes the home could sell for up to $450,000.00. Plaintiff's averments in Paragraph 12; however, would tend to indicate that Plaintiff's averments in Paragraph 7 are not accurate; if the home could potentially yield $130,000 to $150,000 in proceeds, it is not reasonable to say that a foreclosure would wipe out all equity. More importantly, however, determining these matters at this stage of the divorce action is premature. Plaintiff should be required to maintain Defendant at his accustomed standard of living while an equitable distribution of the marital estate is determined. Based on her sworn bankruptcy Petition, Plaintiff should have sufficient resources to pay all or most of the mortgages on the home or otherwise provide Defendant an appropriate amount of spousal support during the pendency of this cause. Accordingly, these matters should be reserved for further determination of the division of the marital estate. .

13. Defendant denies Plaintiff's assertions in Paragraph 13. Plaintiff has the financial ability to continue to pay all or most of the mortgages, which would also avoid foreclosure.
14. Defendant denies Plaintiff's assertion in Paragraph 14. Defendant has merely asserted his legal rights to demand an equitable distribution of martial assets and has attempted to communicate with Plaintiff to form a strategy that does not leave Defendant homeless or financially ruined. It is Plaintiff who created the financial crisis at issue by refusing to pay the mortgages and Plaintiff who now asks this Court to order a fire sale of the most significant asset in this marital estate. The Court should deny this unreasonable and premature request.
15. Defendant denies Plaintiff assertions in Paragraph 15. Plaintiff can pay the mortgage. Her selfish refusal to do so is what has created a time-sensitive crisis. Defendant does not have another place to live or financial means to secure alternate living quarters. While Defendant understand that neither party will come through this divorce unscathed, to ask Defendant to immediately leave his home because of a financial crisis Plaintiff created is an unreasonable and insulting proposition. It should be denied.
16. Defendant strenuously objects to any order to sell the home before the Court has assessed the full marital estate, particularly while Plaintiff has the financial ability to pay the mortgages and thereby maintain status quo. In the even the Court does order a sale, an auction would be an unreasonable fire sale that would almost certainly yield proceeds far below what the home would bring if listed on the open market. Moreover, an immediate auction would expose Defendant to significant liability to current leaseholders residing in the home. Defendant therefore would ask the Court to order Plaintiff to maintain the mortgage for three (3) to six (6) months so that the home may be sold in an orderly fashion on the open market, yield the most proceeds possible, and limit Defendant's liability to leaseholders.

17. Defendant objects to Plaintiff's request in Paragraph 17. Plaintiff voluntarily, and abruptly left the marital residence. She should bear all costs of her decision, and no reimbursement from the marital estate should be permitted. Plaintiff's request for an offset of the proceeds should be denied because her payments on the mortgages were required to keep Defendant in the manner of living to which he had become accustomed. Further, withholding proceeds from a sale to determine any offset would literally render Defendant homeless, without any income, and without any funds available to secure alternate housing. Plaintiff's request is a cruel and unreasonable concept that this Court should reject out of hand.

Defendant would further state and show unto the Court as follows:

18. As noted previously, Defendant currently rents two rooms of the marital residence, so as to have some means of income to pay the utilities for the marital residence and to have some source of income. Should the Court determine that the marital residence should be sold in some form or fashion at this time, the Court take into consideration that the Defendant will need ample time to notify the current tenants of their need to vacate the residence located at 1986 Sunnyside Drive, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027; therefore, the Defendant would request that he, along with the current tenants, be permitted to remain in the residence until the home is sold, and that he be permitted ninety (90) days to properly notify the tenants of their need to vacate the property.

- 19. As a result of the two (2) leases with one-year terms, the Defendant is put into a compromising situation which could result in serious liability. His only two options are to either sell the marital residence with two active leases, or to pay the tenants to vacate early. If he elected to pay the tenants to vacate early, he would most likely have to reimburse them for the remaining months of their lease, security deposits for their next rental, moving costs, etc.
- 20. As one could imagine, the financial burden to the Defendant is monumental when considering these expenses; if anything, if the Defendant is forced to vacate the residence and also reimburse his tenants for vacating early, then Plaintiff should have to share equally in the costs for reimbursing the tenants as well.
- 21. The Defendant would further respectfully submit and agree, as condition to his remaining in the residence, that he shall maintain the home in pristine condition, pay all utilities for the marital residence and pay the first mortgage on the marital residence.
- 22. The Defendant would further agree to permit Plaintiff to inspect the home to determine the status of the interior of the residence, provided he receive notice of no less than forty-eight (48) hours of her intent to enter the former marital residence.
- 23. The Defendant would further aver that the Plaintiff willingly/intentionally failed to notify the Defendant of her bankruptcy proceedings as well as her failure/inability to pay the mortgage in a timely fashion, and that throughout the duration of the marriage, the Plaintiff has been the primary breadwinner and primarily paid the parties' mortgage obligations, moreover Plaintiff is well-aware of the Defendant's inconsistent employment history due to his debilitating mental health diagnoses which affect his ability to maintain continuous and consistent employment.

- 24 That the first and second mortgages as outlined in Plaintiff's Motion, are in the Plaintiff's sole name, and that according to these negotiable instruments, the Plaintiff is solely responsible for payment thereof. Because the Plaintiff failed to communicate with the Defendant as to the status of payment, and Defendant was not a party to the financial documents, it was an impossibility for him to have the ability to contact the lender to verify whether or not payments on the marital residence were being made in a timely manner, and to date is still unaware of when the last payment was received by the mortgage holders, as Plaintiff has failed or refused to provide him with this information.
25. In this aspect, it is arguable that the Plaintiff has unclean hands and that she is acting in bad faith because her past actions have undoubtedly created the present "emergency" as it relates to the possible foreclosure on the marital residence and the need to sell the home in an urgent fashion.
26. The Defendant specifically denies any allegation that he is guilty of domestic abuse towards the Wife, he acknowledges that an Ex Parte Order of Protection is in effect and that the hearing on the Order of Protection is set to be heard on August 1, 2019, which is the same day as the Plaintiff's-Motion to-Sell the Marital Residence is set.
27. The Defendant has not filed an Answer and Counter-Complaint to date as a result of an agreement between the attorneys to grant an extension to file such, and that this is irrelevant with respect to the Motion to Sell the Marital Residence as it has no bearing on the status of the marital residence and the mortgage payments.
28. As stated previously, Defendant acknowledges that he has two tenants residing in the marital residence, and that the rental proceeds are put towards the utilities and maintenance of the home and that he rented these bedrooms in an attempt to mitigate the financial disaster that the Plaintiff put him in after she ceased paying the mortgage and the utilities, and deserted the Defendant.

- 29. The Defendant has transferred utilities into his name and that the utilities remain current, and that he agrees to maintain the status quo.
- 30. Should the Court order the sale of the marital residence, the Defendant would respectfully request that, pending payment of the existing first and second mortgages and any liens on the property, he be permitted an advance on his portion of the proceeds in order to obtain housing, as the sale of the residence will essentially leave him homeless, and without stable employment or rent from tenants, he has no other source of income at this time to rely upon for basic necessities and survival.

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5 Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

- most taxes;
- most student loans;
- domestic support and property settlement obligations;

From: Marty Duke Fax: 16155411842 To: Fax: (615) 790-5626 Page: 41 of 51 07/29/2019 4:06 PM

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts
