AMENDED PROOF OF SERVICE

3:24-CV-01282

(This section should not be filed with the court unless required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 (l))

This summons for (name of individual and title, if any) was received by me on (date)

KATHRYN LYNN YARBROUGH

August 21, 2024

RECEIVED

NOV 25 2024

Other (specify):

Proof of Service for defendant Kathryn Lynn Yarbrough was filed in this District Court ECF 95, PID.5213-5234. However, due to concerns related to the delay of several outstanding defendants making an appearance in this matter, including defendant Yarbrough, out of an abundance of caution, service of defendant Yarbrough was initiated for a third time, this time using registered mail for added security, while requesting an electronic return receipt instead of the traditional green card, to prevent it from potentially getting detached and lost in the mail.

Despite executing service with restricted delivery exactly as outlined in Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(A), somehow every individual bar defendant in this lawsuit managed to defeat, or persuade their mail carrier(s) to help defeat, the successful confirmation of service as intended in this rule, by either interfering with return of the "return receipt requested", returning it blank and unsigned devoid of any delivery information, or returning it signed by someone other than the named defendant to whom the lawsuit service was clearly addressed, despite delivery being restricted to that specific individual. (See 'Exhibit-A' filed in ECF 96-1, PID.5265-5285.)

On October 17, 2024 at 11:55 AM service of defendant Kathryn Lynn Yarbrough was initiated pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 4(e)(1) and Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(A) by delivering to her the lawsuit service package as itemized in ECF 69 and 69-1 of this lawsuit, via registered U.S. mail with tracking number RF753202335US, electronic return receipt requested, with delivery restricted to the addressee. This package was successfully delivered and signed for personally by defendant Yarbrough on October 25, 2024, at 1:05 PM. (See the attached receipt copies from the USPS.)

"(3) An action shall not be dismissed for improper service of process unless the service failed to inform the defendant of the action within the time provided in these rules for service." Rule 2.105(K)(3) - Process; Manner of Service, Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(K)(3).

In the spirit of Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(K)(3) above, I recommend changing the date in which defendant Kathryn Lynn Yarbrough is "deemed served" by the court, from the September 6, 2024 date which I originally filed in ECF 95, PID. 5214, to the date of her most recent service, where she clearly and without doubt received and signed for service herself, on October 25, 2024, at 1:05 PM. My efforts in this matter have been to err on the side of caution, for the benefit of the defendants, while successfully completing service with the highest degree of reliability I know how, for this price point.

I declare under penalty of perjury that this information is true.

Additional information regarding attempted service, etc:

The first service attempt was sent via USPS, with tracking number 70203160000230014902 on August 24, 2024 at 11:25 AM with certified restricted delivery to defendant Yarbrough's long-term and last known place of employment, working with defendant Story at 136 4th Avenue South, Franklin, TN 37064-2622. This was attempted prior to her home address because it was believed to be more convenient for her in the afternoons, since her home is in a different town based upon the information

According to the email tracking notifications provided by the USPS, service was delivered to the front desk of Story and Abernathy, PLLP on August 26, 2024, at 11:08 AM. Although the final tracking manifest provided by the USPS website contradicts that claim, instead showing that the package was "forwarded" from the office of Story and Abernathy on August 26th at 11:12 AM.

Ultimately this package appears to have been sent in circles, passing through the USPS Nashville Distribution Center four separate times, on 8/26, 8/29, 8/31, and on 9/4, while it was sent to the Franklin Post Office on at least two different occasions, on 8/26 and on 9/3/2024, before being returned in Michigan on September 9th, 2024.

Upon return of the package, it was stamped "ATTEMPTED - NOT KNOWN, UNABLE TO FORWARD, RETURN TO SENDER", all of which seem odd, for the following reasons:

- 1) Service to defendant Yarbrough was attempted at the same time as defendant Story's service was successful, so the mail carrier was at the right office location.
- 2) This was believed to have been the place of employment for defendant Yarbrough for over a decade, so for it to be stamped as "NOT KNOWN" seems strange.
- 3) Lastly, it was stamped "UNABLE TO FORWARD", yet it was unsuccessfully forwarded several times, according to the shipping manifest and email notices.

Eventually this was returned to me in Michigan, but since I had been monitoring the tracking online, Jeff decided to initiate a second service attempt at defendant Yarbrough's home, while due to time concerns for completing service we did not wait until we received this package back. Instead, another lawsuit service package was produced and service was attempted a second time to defendant Yarbrough, this time at her home address. This attempt too had some peculiarities, but appears to have been ultimately successful.

This was returned by the USPS exactly as shown, but folded in half and stapled together.

No information was provided except what you can see here.

I interpret this to be saying that the green card fell off the package inside the delivering mail carrier's vehicle, so they had the addressee sign for the package electronically (or by some other means), which they printed out on this white piece of paper, in place of the green card. Then the best I can figure, the mail carrier must have found the green card later in their vehicle, since it was attached as shown, so they stapled this signed proof of delivery to the green card and returned stapled together.

Looks like the green card became unattached before delivery
