

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

JEFFREY RYAN FENTON,

PLAINTIFF

VIRGINIA LEE STORY ET AL.,

DEFENDANTS

CASE NO. 1:23-cv-01097

COUNTER-AFFIDAVIT TO “AFFIDAVIT OF VIRGINIA LEE STORY”¹

Plaintiff brings this testimony pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1746.

I, Jeffrey Ryan Fenton, declare under oath as follows:

1. I am the plaintiff in this federal lawsuit.
2. I am a citizen of the United States of America.
3. I am domiciled in Genesee County, Michigan.
4. Throughout this declaration, when I refer to defendant Story’s law firm, “Story and Abernathy, PLLP” (hereinafter “SAC”), that will include any prior firms with her as a member operating out of the same office building located at 136 4th Avenue South, Franklin, TN, 37064, regardless of the partnership structure or naming variant used for their law firm during different seasons.

¹ Citations to the court record in this lawsuit will be notated without the case name or number, using the starting ECF Number, followed by both the beginning and ending Page ID, which is abbreviated as “PID.”

5. In paragraph 11 of defendant Story's affidavit referenced in the title, she falsely stated, "I have never conducted any activity in Michigan related to Plaintiff."²

6. She similarly falsely stated in paragraph 12 of that same affidavit, "Story and Abernathy, PLLP has never conducted any activity in Michigan related to Plaintiff." This is also contrary to the interactions she and her company have had with me since I've lived in Michigan.

7. While it may be true that she or her firm or any of its members have never physically been located in the State or Michigan or personally conducted any business there, they still "conducted [much] activity in Michigan related to Plaintiff."

8. The absolutely false aspect of those statements is that from a physical base inside Tennessee, her company and the courts in Tennessee unlawfully committed a plethora of state and federal felonies against me and my family. This was done under the fictitious color of law, without even having lawful jurisdiction over the matters they "adjudicated," nor having lawful jurisdiction over my person after they wrongfully evicted me from my home, clearly knowing in advance that would cause me to become geographically dislocated from the State of Tennessee to the State of Michigan where I could have emergency replacement shelter and provisions from my elderly mother who lives in Genessee County Michigan.

9. After dislocating me, defendants Story, SAC, Yarbrough, and the Williamson County Chancery Court continued to file fraudulent papers³ in the court and—with the help of defendants Binkley, Beeler, and Chancery Court—proceeded to terrorize⁴ me and my family under the bad faith fraudulent color of law as the evidence on record shows.

10. Two letters from defendants Story and SAC sent to me in Michigan are shown on pages A4-5 and A4-6 in the complaint as being dated after September 3, 2019, the day I was wrongly evicted from his home.⁵ Defendant Story knew I would be “be moving to Michigan.”⁶ In fact, even with the redaction, the letter on page A4-5 shows it being clearly addressed to Marsha Fenton who Story knew lived in Michigan.⁷

11. The preceding paragraph proves on its own that defendants Story and SAC had conducted “activity in Michigan” and clearly shows their affidavit to be falsified.

12. Defendant Story doesn’t appear to be denying a single merit of this lawsuit in her affidavit, despite how horrifically it accurately portrays her. She merely seems to imply that it is none of the state court or federal court of Michigan’s business, despite me living in Michigan, it and its courts having a duty to provide me with equal protection under the law, and her and defendant SAC injuring me and causing me damages while I was living in Michigan.

13. Defendants Story and SAC did in fact “conducted [much] activity in Michigan related to [me].”

14. “Activity” originated from and/or was primarily caused by, related to, conducted through, or subsequent to the actions of defendants Story and SAC after I was no longer a resident of Tennessee.

15. Forgetting for the moment that paragraphs 11 and 12 of defendant Story's affidavit are false, even if paragraphs 11, 12, and 13 were all true, one could not logically deduce that "the substantial part of the events giving rise to the [c]omplaint did not occur in Michigan." Moreover, the crime and corruption arising from the "divorce proceeding" are only a portion of the foundation of the complaint. The crime and corruption born of the bankruptcy comprise the other portion to which defendants Story and SAC were certainly connected.

16. Taking this one step further, even if defendant Story had not prevaricated and everything in the affidavit could be taken as true, she is still implying that federal courts in Michigan do not have personal jurisdiction over her or her firm. Such flawed reasoning, if instead true, would negate nearly half of all federal cases brought under diversity of citizenship. The whole purpose of diversity—under which the instant case was brought—is to litigate cases in which no plaintiffs are residents of any of the states of the defendants.

17. To clarify based upon time calculations related to defendant Story's and SAC's claim, I only lived in Tennessee from June 6, 2019, when defendant Story filed a divorce complaint, through September 3, 2019, when I was wrongfully evicted from my home by four officers of the Williamson County Sheriff's Office.

18. The period in which I lived in Tennessee impacted by the "activity" of defendants Story and SAC is from June 6 through September 3, 2019, which is merely 90 days.

19. The period in which I remained in litigation with defendants Story and SAC after I began living in Michigan was from September 7, 2019, through April 4, 2021, when the case was closed by the Tennessee Court of Appeals⁸. This is a total of 576 days in litigation.

20. That means I was in litigation with defendants Story and SAC 486 days longer while living in Michigan than while living in Tennessee.

21. The computation also means that I only lived in Tennessee for less than 16 percent of the duration during which I actively attempted to defend myself against the malicious and illegal practices of defendants Story and SAC with more than 84 percent of the time being while I lived in Michigan.

22. Therefore, “the substantial part of the events giving rise to the [c]omplaint did not occur in Michigan,” in paragraph 14 of defendant Story’s affidavit is another factually untrue statement.

23. According to the Tennessee Supreme Court’s Rules of Professional Conduct for attorneys, in Tenn. R. Sup. Ct. 1.0 Rule 1.0 - TERMINOLOGY⁹, they define “Fraud” or “Fraudulent” as follows:

- (d) “Fraud” or “fraudulent” denotes an intentionally false or misleading statement of material fact, an intentional omission from a statement of fact of such additional information as would be necessary to make the statements made not materially misleading, and such other conduct by a person intended to deceive a person or tribunal with respect to a material issue in a proceeding or other matter.

24. In my experience, this is defendant Story’s signature move in literally almost every document filed by her and SAC during the preceding matters in Tennessee.....and thus far 100 percent of the time in this matter.

25. If merely a fraction of what I have sworn to under the penalty of perjury in my complaint is true, the Department of Justice should be leading an investigation into underlying matters for felony criminal charges against several of the defendants.

DECLARATION

Pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, except as to matters herein stated to be on information and belief, and as to such matters, I certify as aforesaid that I verily believe the same to be true.
