CASE NO. 3:24-cv-01282

RECEIVED
MAR 07 2025
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TN

SECOND¹ MOTION TO EXTEND TIME AND ASSIST WITH PERFECTING SERVICE²

This testimony and motion is being brought pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1746; F.R.Civ.P. 4(c)(3), 4(e)(1), 4(h)(1)(A), 4(j)(2)(B), and Mich. Ct. R. 2.105, specifically including Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(K)(3); F.R.Civ.P. 4(m) with good cause, Rule 9(2)(b), 11(b), 16, 46³, 63⁴, 83; U.S. Code § 455(a), (b)(1); U.S. Const. amend V §§ 1, 5.1, 7.1, 7.9, 9.1, 9.10, 9.4, and amend XIV §§ 1.3, 1.5, 1.6, 1.8.12.3, 1.8.13.1; Case Law; and 18 U.S. Code § 4 - Misprision of felony.

¹ A "MOTION TO EXTEND SERVICE DEADLINE EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION REQUESTED" was filed in MIWD on August 19, 2024, in DOC 61 and 61-1, PID 4740-4743. | <https://rico.jeffenton.com/3-24-cv-01282/doc/61.pdf> | 61-1.pdf

² This lawsuit was originally filed on October 13, 2023, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan (hereinafter "MIWD") as case no. 1:23-cv-01097. On October 25, 2024, MIWD transferred this lawsuit as ordered in ECF 127 to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee (hereinafter "TNMD") as case no. 3:24-cv-01282. The language used in the file stamps of each page filed is slightly different between the two courts. MIWD uses the term "ECF No." (which I abbreviate as "ECF"), while in place of that, TNMD uses the term "Document" (which I abbreviate as "DOC"). Both courts use the term "PageID" (which I abbreviate as "PID"). Citations to the court record in this lawsuit will be notated without the case name or number, using the starting DOC/ECF number, followed by both the beginning and ending PID. The Notice of Electronic Filing for this transfer is recorded in TNMD DOC 131, at which point the DOC/ECF number from MIWD was retained and continued, but the PID was reset after DOC 130, PID 5727, to restart at zero.

BACKGROUND

1. On August 19, 2024, I filed a motion in MIWD titled, “MOTION TO EXTEND SERVICE DEADLINE EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION REQUESTED⁵” in DOC 61 and 61-1, PID 4740-4743, which I qualified for under the good cause provision of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), requiring the court to “extend the time for service for an appropriate period⁶.”

“...But if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period⁷.”

2. This lawsuit is against five judges, ten attorneys, five law firms, two real estate firms, two real estate brokers, two banks, one county, three courts, with a total of five state government entities in Tennessee.

3. Every individual BAR defendant being sued has exerted some effort (or some effort was exerted on their behalf) to dodge service and/or to obfuscate, defeat, deprive, deny the successful confirmation of service as required by the court’s rules. (See “Exhibit-A⁸” filed on October 4, 2024, in DOC 96-1, PID 5265-5285.)

4. Many of the defendants have gone out of their way to make service more difficult and costly for me, as an out of state litigant, by playing games, refusing to sign for registered and certified mail, leaving the service unclaimed at their post offices for weeks and months, and even returning it to the post office as “refused” weeks after they had accepted the delivery.

5. As a geographically displaced, indigent litigant, solely due to the crimes committed against my family by the defendants in this lawsuit, I have had to borrow over six-thousand dollars from my family, simply to serve the defendants, while many of them still cry foul and wrongfully claim that service was defective, incomplete, untimely, etc... in an effort to thwart lawful accountability, at seemingly any cost.

6. Regardless of what anyone claims about service, I have done everything reasonably within my power, knowledge, and means, to serve the defendants as quickly, efficiently, and fully as I have been physically capable of, under the circumstances.

7. To date, no court has assisted me with service nor timely answered my motions regarding service⁹, so that I could protect my interests while responding to the defendant's evasive misconduct, allowing me to ensure that service, reasonable under the circumstances and satisfactory to the court, was perfected to each and every defendant before moving forward to address other issues.

8. I have had to produce and have served roughly sixty-nine¹⁰ *lawsuit service packages*¹¹ to date, weighing about 3.875 lbs. each, and costing approximately $100 per package for raw materials, including paper, ink, labels, flash drives, and postage; without counting time or labor, which were significant.

9. I estimated service of the thirty-four defendants to cost between $3,000 - $5,000 and had secured a loan from family for that amount, yet those projections were dwarfed by the actual costs and time required to produce and attempt to serve literally twice as many *lawsuit service packages*¹² as there are defendants in this case. (See attached exhibits “A” through “A-2”.)

10. There are defendant(s) in this lawsuit who are represented by counsel who still claim that they have not been served¹³ while asking the court to dismiss them from this lawsuit due to this alleged defect in service. This is deceptive atrocious gamesmanship¹⁴, in bad faith by the powerful defendants and their counsel, unbecoming of any office or position of public service or trust, while many have daily lorded over the lives of other litigants held to a far stricter standard.

11. This is frankly shameful and should be disciplined by the court for wasting both the courts’ and my critical time and resources on frivolous nonsense! (See attached exhibits “B” through “B-9”.)

12. This lawsuit was served in compliance with F.R.Civ.P. 4(e)(1), F.R.Civ.P. 4(h)(1)(A), or F.R.Civ.P. 4(j)(2)(B), depending upon the entity type, and Mich. Ct. R. 2.105.

13. Upon information and belief, every defendant in this lawsuit received service which at the very least informed them about this lawsuit during the period of time designated by MIWD for me to serve, or shortly thereafter, during an extension of time to serve, which I both motioned the court for¹⁶ and qualified for under the good cause provision of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), requiring the court to “extend the time for service for an appropriate period¹⁷.”

14. Yet frivolous pleadings and misconduct persists by the defendants, as their counsel has filed motions, including a motion for an “emergency” hearing, seeking to have defendants expeditiously dismissed from this lawsuit and/or granted summary judgments, while largely ignoring the critical constitutional merits and justice interests in this lawsuit. Accepting no responsibility for the damage the defendants clearly collectively caused me, without any language committed to working toward a meaningful remedy, compromise, or cure of any kind.

15. Upon information and belief, I don’t know of a single defendant to date who has honestly answered my sworn and verified complaint in this lawsuit.

16. Upon information and belief, I don’t know of a single responsive pleading filed by the defendants or their counsel, which honestly complies with F.R.Civ.P. Rule 11(b), despite the fact that every filing by officers of the court is supposed to be honest, accurate, and true, “after [performing] an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances¹⁸”, in compliance with F.R.Civ.P. Rule 11(b).

“Pleadings are intended to serve as a means of arriving at fair and just settlements of controversies between litigants. They should not raise barriers which prevent the achievement of that end. Proper pleading is important, but its importance consists in its effectiveness as a means to accomplish the end of a just judgment.” Maty v. Grasselli Chemical Co., 303 U.S. 197 (1938) (emphasis added).

“The federal rules reject the approach that pleading is a game of skill in which one misstep by counsel may be decisive to the outcome and accept the principle that the purpose of pleading is to facilitate a proper decision on the merits.” The court also cited Rule 8(f) [8(e)] FRCP, which holds that all pleadings shall be construed to do substantial justice. Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 at 48 (1957) (emphasis added).

17. Upon information and belief, I don’t know of a single defendant to date, who has honestly filed a pleading seeking “to facilitate a proper decision on the merits¹⁹” of this lawsuit, or who has used pleadings in this case so far, “to serve as a means of arriving at fair and just settlements of controversies between litigants.²⁰” That is ground zero in this matter, and unfortunately we’re still not there yet.

THE TIMELINE FOR SERVICE IN THIS LAWSUIT

18. I first obtained executed summonses by which I could begin service of this lawsuit on August 21, 2024, as recorded in the docket, stating “SUMMONS ISSUED...”.

19. Service began being sent on August 23, 2024, at 2:51 PM from the United States Postal Service in Linden, Michigan. Service was first sent to former Williamson County Chancery Court judge Michael Weimar Binkley²¹, in Franklin, Tennessee.

20. In the NOTICE OF INTENT TO TRANSFER ACTION²² by District Judge Paul L. Maloney dated September 12²³, 2024, he states at the end of section “A.” at the top of page 2²⁴, “Plaintiff continues his efforts to serve the defendants and no defendant has made an appearance in this lawsuit” (emphasis added).

THE INTERESTS OF JUSTICE

21. To be clear, District Judge Maloney made the statement above, twenty-one days after the August 22, 2024, deadline for service to be completed by, according to the wrongful order²⁵ by the Magistrate Judge in DOC 55²⁶, PID 4383, which was afterwards justly ignored by District Judge Maloney.

22. I have an exhaustive defense for the timeline of service based on the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and judicial misconduct²⁷ in MIWD, which I have documented in the docket of this lawsuit. This should be clear by the simple fact that MIWD elected to transfer this lawsuit to TNMD in the interests of justice rather than dismissing it (as the Magistrate Judge had repeatedly voiced his intent to do) for being filed in what they claimed to be the “wrong venue” or for failure to timely serve as the defendants have erroneously yet repeatedly claimed.

²⁵ The Magistrate Judge’s order was the product of judicial bias and misconduct, as I reasonably proved on August 19, 2024, in my “MOTION TO RECUSE” filed in DOC 60, PID 4736-4739, and my “OBJECTION TO THIS COURT’S “ORDER REGARDING SERVICE”” filed in DOC 62, PID 4744-4760.

23. If the court is not satisfied with this explanation, I can provide much more detail while reviewing each motion for service²⁸ in MIWD and considering the correlating orders provided by that court.

24. I am entitled to have a fair opportunity to serve my lawsuit, and whether anyone likes it or not, that opportunity realistically began on August 21, 2024, when I first received my summonses back from the court executed, after having originally brought them to the court for execution on January 19, 2024, in DOC 16 and 16-1.

25. At which point the Magistrate Judge went silent and refused to make another appearance in this matter until July 8, 2024, one hundred and seventy-one days after I filed my motion regarding service²⁹ with “expedited consideration requested”.

26. The clerk of that court mistakenly filed my summonses in the docket as “proposed summonses³⁰” in DOC 16-1, PID 2267-2330, rather than executing them as intended and returning them to me within days. Once my summonses were docketed as “proposed summonses”, the court refused to return the summonses to me until after the Magistrate Judge finally ruled on my motion regarding service³¹, nearly six months later, at absolutely no fault of my own.

THE DEFENDANTS ARE REPEATEDLY VIOLATING F.R.C.P. RULE 11(B)

27. Many of the defendants in this lawsuit who have made an appearance to date have filed motions to dismiss citing even the most frivolous procedural defects when procedural defects (technicalities) are not allowed to rule over merits and conduct in lawsuits involving pro se litigants, especially while ignoring the critical constitutional merits of this lawsuit and the reprehensible misconduct by the courts and counsel in preceding matters (which has not been meaningfully disputed or denied by the defendants to date).

28. Since there is so much which must be quickly responded to in this lawsuit, with thirty-four powerful and well-funded defendants against one indigent pro se litigant, with significant communication disabilities, there is not time for me to possibly respond to every frivolous attempt to stymie and evade justice in this matter, especially not within the timelines provided in the federal rules.

SERVICE OF PROCESS

29. Before addressing motions by the defendants, I'm seeking to settle the last few outstanding issues related to service, some of which require the active participation of the court for me to complete.

30. To date, no meaningful litigation has begun. Therefore, any defendant claiming not to have received proper service so far can still be served by this court without suffering any prejudice in this lawsuit in any meaningful form or material fashion.

MOTIONS REGARDING SERVICE

31. I move the court to enter an order extending the deadline for the completion of service, until my motions³² involving service have been fairly heard and meaningfully addressed by this court, and I have had an opportunity to take appropriate actions based upon those orders.

32. This motion complies with the good cause provision in Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), which states in part, “But if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period” (emphasis added).

33. For more information about what caused the most significant delays in service of this lawsuit, and why that satisfies the provision for “good cause” provided in Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), please see my “SECOND OBJECTION TO ALL DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS, REDACTED AND SEALED FILINGS, WITH DECLARATION ABOUT JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT IN MICHIGAN CAUSING SUBSTANTIAL DELAYS IN SERVICE.”³³

34. I move the court to enter an order granting my “MOTION FOR ALTERNATIVE SERVICE”, filed in TNMD on November 25, 2024, in DOC 177, PID 234-250, for the reasons stated therein.

35. I move the court to examine the service of every defendant in this lawsuit and to enter an order stating that service has been successfully perfected to every defendant named in this lawsuit, within the time limits allowed—or was successfully completed based on reasonable efforts, under the circumstances.

36. There have been some questions or concerns amongst clerks regarding the filing of summonses issued by MIWD in the TNMD case, due to procedural differences between Michigan and Tennessee district courts, different case numbers, etc.

37. I move the court to examine the summonses returned executed on the docket, and determine if they are acceptable as filed, especially those most recently returned, after the case was transferred from MIWD to TNMD courts, or if there is reason to issue new summonses, executed by TNMD with the current case number, to any or all of the defendants.

38. If the court determines that any or all of the summonses are defective in any way, or should be replaced, I move the court to issue new summonses using the printed summons forms which I am submitting simultaneously with this motion, for use as needed.

39. Out of respect for the privacy of the defendants, due to concerns about home addresses being publicly disclosed, I filled out each summons with the party's name, addressed to the care of (C/O) their counsel of record in this matter. I provided three summons forms for each defendant, to be used however the court determines.

40. In my mind the court could simply execute these and file them on the record, while notifying the defendant's counsel via PACER, where they could have instant access to the documents, with instructions for the defendant's counsel to download the Tennessee summonses and to provide them to their clients (the defendants). This seems like a relatively quick and easy way for the court to ensure that all related quibbling quickly ceases by the defendant's counsel, so that we can proceed with more important matters. The court could also mail these to the defendant's counsel or have them served to the defendant's via the United States Marshal Service if the court deems that appropriate.

41. Should the court prefer that I resubmit the summonses with the defendant's home and business addresses listed rather than in “care of” their counsel of record, I move the court to provide me notice so that I can quickly comply.

42. Since no material matters have yet been heard by any court in this matter, no defendant would be prejudiced in any way by being issued new summonses or service by the court at this time, prior to proceeding.

43. I move the court to provide me notice of any defendant(s) which the court requires a more detailed explanation of the efforts to serve.

44. I move the court to provide me notice of any defendant(s) which the court finds service to have been insufficient, defective, or lacking along with an extension of time to cure such defects with the court’s assistance prior to moving forward with this lawsuit.

45. In any instance where the court finds that service was insufficient, lacking, or improperly executed, I move the court to enter an order to have the court re-serve those defendants per Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(3), using the U.S. Marshals Service, and to compel them to make an appearance in this matter so that the court can begin to address the weighty merits in this lawsuit.

FED. R. CIV. P. RULE 4 SUMMONS (C) SERVICE (3) BY A MARSHAL OR SOMEONE SPECIALLY APPOINTED

“At the plaintiff’s request, the court may order that service be made by a United States marshal or deputy marshal or by a person specially appointed by the court.³⁴”

46. Service can be executed by the court at almost no cost using “alternative service³⁵,” since all the documents for service are digitally hosted on my website³⁶, saving significantly on printing, paper, and production costs.

47. I have put forth extraordinary efforts regarding service³⁷ of this lawsuit, while being actively fought by both the defendants and the Michigan Magistrate Judge³⁸, as is well documented in several filings in this matter.

48. In an effort not to bloat the filings in this lawsuit with unnecessary redundancy, I will skip expounding further on the “good cause” substantiation for this motion and the requests herein. However, if for any reason the court finds this explanation lacking in specificity, substance, or details, I move the court to provide me notice and I will devote more time and work to providing the court with a more robust pleading about the justice interests in this lawsuit, along with the individual obstacles to service I have experienced to date.

ORDER REGARDING SERVICE, JULY 8, 2024, DOC 55, PID 4381
BY THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE IN MICHIGAN

“In exercising its discretionary authority under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(3), the Court considers whether there is a sufficient reason to burden the USMS with serving plaintiff’s initial pleading. The purpose of this rule “is to reduce the burden on the United States Marshal Service of serving civil process in private litigation, without endangering the effective and efficient service of civil process.” Advisory Committee Notes for Fed. R. Civ. P. 4, 93 F.R.D. 255, 262 (1981). “[T]he plaintiff is expected first to seek service by private means whenever feasible rather than impose the burden on the Marshals Service” and “court orders directing service by marshal should not be issued unless they really are necessary.” Id. “In short, the aim is to encourage use of methods that do not involve marshals.” Id.” (Emphasis added.)

49. The implication in the paragraph above, by the Michigan Magistrate Judge, is that a plaintiff would have more than one opportunity to request the court’s assistance with service, (which is contingent upon the court timely responding to the plaintiff’s motions regarding service, which has not been my experience yet, but remains an important need for due process.)

50. The expectation set by the Magistrate Judge in the paragraph above was that the plaintiff should first attempt to serve their lawsuit on their own (which I have done), whenever possible, while deferring or reserving court ordered service by the USMS to those situations where their services “really are necessary” (which I have also done).

51. Upon information and belief, I have done everything reasonably within my power, at my limited price point, to serve the defendants, while they have all been satisfactorily served per Michigan’s Court Rules³⁹, some multiple times.

52. In my mind this issue boils down to how much of the defendant's shenanigans the court chooses to allow, entertain, or tolerate, while I am merely asking for the court's assistance in compensating for any defect in service thereby caused or claimed by the defendant's actions to intentionally dodge service and/or to deny, deprive, or interfere with the successful return of the "return receipt" which was requested and purchased from the USPS, as required by the court's rules, but was not correctly returned by a single individual BAR defendant in this matter⁴⁰. Along with helping to compel four outstanding defendants who have been successfully served, to make an appearance in this matter. That seems like a very reasonable request, after having exhausted a significant amount of my family's resources toward service.

53. Upon the satisfactory completion of all service-related matters herein, I move the court to enter an order that all service-related claims, complaints, and defenses by the defendants and their counsel are moot moving forward.

COMPELLING CERTAIN DEFENDANTS TO MAKE AN APPEARANCE

MY PREVIOUS MOTION TO EXTEND TIME FOR SERVICE

55. On August 19, 2024, I filed a motion in MIWD titled, “MOTION TO EXTEND SERVICE DEADLINE EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION REQUESTED⁴⁵” in DOC 61 and 61-1, PID 4740-4743.

56. This motion was quickly drafted due to a mechanical failure with my laser printer, forcing me to wait on parts to be delivered to finish service.

57. After addressing this mechanical failure (which only took a few days), there have been several other delays in service, caused by instances of misconduct by the defendants⁴⁶, their counsel, and MIWD, immediately prior to and after the transfer of this lawsuit from the Western District of Michigan to the Middle District of Tennessee, further exacerbated by the outstanding defendants dodging service and obfuscating/interfering with the successful confirmation of service as required by the court’s rules⁴⁷, which I have mentioned in multiple filings.

58. It should be noted that I did not file additional papers with the court, related to my previous motion, to substantiate further extending the time to serve, while itemizing each additional challenge I faced with service, after my printer was repaired.

59. The reason I did not elaborate on the other delays in service after the printing problem was fixed, despite the fact that I believe they qualify for consideration under the good cause provision in F.R.Civ.P. Rule 4(m), for extensions of time as necessary to finish perfecting service, is because the court never ruled on my motion to extend time for service⁴⁸ filed on August 19, 2024.

⁴⁶ DOC 211, PID 689-723 | https://rico.jeffenton.com/evidence/2025-02-08_objection-to-dispositive-defendant-motions.pdf
DOC 212, PID 730-907 | https://rico.jeffenton.com/evidence/2025-02-10_tn-motion-to-minimize-or-remove-redactions.pdf

⁴⁷ See “Exhibit-A” filed on October 4, 2024, in DOC 96-1, PID 5265-5285 | <https://rico.jeffenton.com/3-24-cv-01282/doc/96-1.pdf>

⁴⁸ DOC 61 and 61-1, PID 4740-4743 | <https://rico.jeffenton.com/3-24-cv-01282/doc/61.pdf> | 3-24-cv-01282/doc/61-1.pdf

60. As such, based on my previous experience requesting an extension of time to serve⁴⁹ on January 19, 2024, in DOC 16, PID 2258-2266, which was not ruled on until July 8, 2024, in DOC 55, PID 4378-4384, where the court order took effect beginning as of the date the court finally ruled on it.

61. It is therefore believed that the court counts days for an extension, beginning as of the date of the court order. So, until the court rules on my motion for “an additional thirty (30) days” to serve, it is believed that the additional need (caused by dodging, interference, or misconduct) would continue to be satisfied by the additional time required, while waiting for the court to respond to this motion and rule on it.

62. I just want to clarify that the entire justification for the extension needed to complete the final aspects of perfecting service, wasn’t due to my laser printing breaking down, though it certainly began that way and remains a pending motion before this court.

63. It was likewise believed that with all the difficulty I have had trying to move the court for assistance, accommodations, and clarification related to the service of my lawsuit, and the subsequent wait times which followed, that I didn’t have time for long-winded pleadings, I needed to concentrate all my time, money, and energy on completing service, as quickly as I physically could.

64. That remained my primary focus until the misconduct and interference related to defendant Walker and the United States Attorney’s Offices⁵⁰, both in Michigan and Tennessee hijacked my attention, demanding hundreds of hours of work for me to meaningfully remedy.

SUPPORTING CASE LAW

Society's commitment to institutional justice requires that judges be solicitous of the rights of persons who come before the court. Geiler v. Commission on Judicial Qualifications*, (1973) 10 Cal.3d 270, 286 (emphasis added).

“Pro se pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicality; pro se litigants' pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as lawyers.” Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421 (1959); Picking v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 151 Fed 2nd 240; Pucket v. Cox, 456 2nd 233 (emphasis added).

“Due to sloth, inattention or desire to seize tactical advantage, lawyers have long engaged in dilatory practices... the glacial pace of much litigation breeds frustration with the Federal Courts and ultimately, disrespect for the law.” Roadway Express v. Pipe, 447 U.S. 752 at 757 (1982) (emphasis added).

The Supreme Court has ruled and has reaffirmed the principle that “justice must satisfy the appearance of justice”, Levine v. United States, 362 U.S. 610, 80 S.Ct. 1038 (1960), citing Offutt v. United States, 348 U.S. 11, 14, 75 S.Ct. 11, 13 (1954) (emphasis added).

This cannot be ignored its fact recorded! Judgment is a void judgment if court that rendered judgment lacked jurisdiction of the subject matter, or of the parties, or acted in a manner inconsistent with due process, Fed. Rules Civ. Proc., Rule 60(b)(4), 28 U.S.C.A., U.S.C.A. Const. Amend. 5 -Klugh v. U.S., 620 F.Supp. 892 (D.S.C. 1985) (emphasis added).

The Court Has a Responsibility to Correct a Void Judgment: The statute of limitations does not apply to a suit in equity to vacate a void judgment. (Cadenasso v. Bank of Italy, p. 569; Estate of Pusey, 180 Cal. 368,374 [181 P. 648].) This rule holds as to all void judgments. In the other two cases cited, People v. Massengale and In re Sandel, the courts confirmed the judicial power and responsibility to correct void judgments (emphasis added).

When rule providing for relief from void judgments is applicable, relief is not discretionary matter, but is mandatory. Omer. V. Shalala, 30 F.3d 1307 (Colo. 1994) (emphasis added).

“The innocent individual who is harmed by an abuse of governmental authority is assured that he will be compensated for his injury.” Owen v. City of Independence, 445 U.S. 622 (1980) (emphasis added).

CONCLUSION

65. I move the court to enter an order extending the deadline for the completion of service, until my motions⁵¹ involving service have been fairly heard and meaningfully addressed by this court, and I have had an opportunity to take appropriate actions based upon those orders.

66. I move the court to enter an order granting my “MOTION FOR ALTERNATIVE SERVICE”, filed in TNMD on November 25, 2024, in DOC 177, PID 234-250, for the reasons stated therein.

67. I move the court to examine the service of every defendant in this lawsuit and to enter an order stating that service has been successfully perfected to every defendant named in this lawsuit, within the time limits allowed—or was successfully completed based on reasonable efforts, under the circumstances.

68. I move the court to examine the summonses returned executed on the docket, and determine if they are acceptable as filed, especially those most recently returned, after the case was transferred from MIWD to TNMD courts, or if there is reason to issue new summonses, executed by TNMD with the current case number, to any or all of the defendants.

DOC 221, PID 1129-1163 | <https://rico.jeffenton.com/3-24-cv-01282/221.htm>

69. If the court determines that any or all of the summonses are defective in any way, or should be replaced, I move the court to issue new summonses using the printed summons forms which I am submitting simultaneously with this motion, for use as needed.

70. If the court wants me to resubmit the summons forms with the defendant's home or business addresses on the summonses (instead of addressing them "care of" their counsel of record), I move the court to provide me notice so that I can quickly comply.

71. I move the court to provide me notice of any defendant(s) which the court requires a more detailed explanation of the efforts to serve.

72. I move the court to provide me notice of any defendant(s) which the court finds service to have been insufficient, defective, or lacking along with an extension of time to cure such defects with the court's assistance prior to moving forward with this lawsuit.

73. In any instance where the court finds that service was insufficient, lacking, or improperly executed, I move the court to enter an order to have the court re-serve those defendants per Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(3), using the U.S. Marshals Service, and to compel them to make an appearance in this matter, so that the court can begin to address the weighty merits in this lawsuit.

74. Upon the satisfactory completion of all service-related matters herein, I move the court to enter an order that all service-related claims, complaints, and defenses by the defendants and their counsel are moot moving forward.

75. I move the court to compel the following defendants, who have been served, to make an appearance in this matter: Attorney Kathryn Lynn Yarbrough, Attorney Alexander Sergey Koval, Bankers Title & Escrow Corporation, Spragins, Barnett & Cobb, PLC.

76. I move the court to provide me notice and an opportunity to cure any defect in service before proceeding to address more substantive matters in this lawsuit.

ELECTRONIC SERVICE OPTIONS

Many of my filings in this lawsuit are also made publicly available on the Internet, through my list¹ of documents filed by myself in this lawsuit, since the release of my lawsuit service package². I typically try to do this as quickly as I can after filing them in court, depending upon my workload. Not every filing warrants being electronically published in this manner, while my time is extremely limited, therefore I cannot provide any guarantees about which documents will or will not be made available online, or exactly when.

For those interested, these files are usually “true” digitally created PDF files, in full color, often with optical character recognition enabled, sometimes with electronic bookmarks, and occasionally with a built-in table of contents which is hyperlinked for easy and efficient referencing, in my largest and most significant documents, such as my amended complaint³.
