Ms. Beeler,

Please forward this email to Chancellor Binkley. If he doesn't have email, then please print this out and deliver it to him. I'm not sure how your communications work at the court house, but I read somewhere in the code about directly communicating with Judges, even in an ex parte capacity when needed. However, since Ms. Story is copied on this email, this should not be considered an ex parte communication.

I'd simply prefer that Chancellor Binkley have an opportunity to read my words as written by me, before Ms. Story has a chance to twist them into an even more horribly offensive lie again.

Thank you very much mam!

Subject: Miscommunication Yesterday

Hello Ms. Story,

I just had the Clerk's and Master's Office send me a copy of the court order from yesterday.

Apparently there was a miscommunication somehow, between when you spoke about the TV and the Dehumidifier, where Chancellor Binkley understood your comments about me selling them to have occurred during the Restraining Order Statutory Injunction, which is not at all correct. This was months before.

It looks like that is what upset the Chancellor and caused him to change his ruling to forbid me from taking any of my personal property with me when I move.

As I don't believe that was what you were alleging, and I know that isn't what happened, how do we get this cleared up, so that I can take my personal property with me, so that I can move to Michigan, as planned?

This seems to all be about a simple misunderstanding, more so that favoritism, as I thought. I just couldn't rationalize any other reason for such drastic changes in the order.

How do we fix this quickly so I can leave?

I've done nothing against the Statutory Injunction at all. If anything, a little bit of money could arguably be kept from my final proceeds.

Please advise, I want to get packing, but I legally can't.

Thanks.

I repeatedly tried to give Binkley, Beeler, Story and Yarbrough the "benefit of the doubt", using professional, courteous, and even extremely kind words (under the circumstances), such as "miscommunication", "misunderstanding", and "error", but no matter how soft-spoken, gratuitous and/or forgiving I was, they simply refused to operate honestly in good faith, at any cost.

In the end, there is not one facet of this which I don't now believe was premeditated, at the very least, by Story and Yarbrough. While I wouldn't be surprised to learn that Binkley and Beeler were in on the entire scam from the very start, it would honestly make more sense.

They certainly were all involved in felony criminal misconduct, while enabling and covering up for each other, refusing to intervene or assist the injured party, mitigate damages, or report unconscionable criminal misconduct. While violating their oaths of office and the Tennessee Supreme Court's Rules of both Professional and Judicial Conduct, along with the judicial Canons and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The only facet which is even arguable in my mind, is how much Binkley and Beeler were knowledgeable about the finite details of the crimes and the players involved.

Whether Binkley & Beeler in fact ran the scam(s), since they obviously ran the court, versus blindly backing each other's play, at any cost. Knowing it was fraud on the court, reasonably having criminal knowledge, intent, and participation, deliberately acting in bad faith, but without knowing (or caring) about the details, as a routine quid pro quo practice between friends.

Personally, I believe the answer is irrelevant, because both their actions and inactions, combined with the culture of that court, empowered the obscene criminal cruelties to take place and thrive without being detected or discovered, while defeating every attempt I made to reach help throughout the state.

Subject: Miscommunication Yesterday in Court

They have both lied to me and acted abhorrently contemptuous, dishonestly, and dishonorable of the responsibilities they were entrusted with, by the people, along with the privileged offices they enjoyed. I know of no greater betrayal by local government employees than how they have served themselves and their friends through their powerful offices of trust, at the public's unwitting expense.

Unfortunately they enjoy enough local influence (connections/corruption/buddies), that the authorities won't even take a criminal complaint against them or investigate their heinous crimes, at least in my experience. Though I've yet to find anyone in Tennessee's judicial and law enforcement communities who act surprised when I tell them about the felony crimes committed against me by these privileged members of Tennessee's courts.

In my experience, I believe that Tennessee has a "don't ask, don't tell" culture and attitude about it's courts and specifically judicial misconduct. I believe this is also extended to tolerate and cover-up gross professional misconduct by attorneys who are close friends with local judges, willing to act in their favor, or who have access to judges which exceeds tolerances defined by the Tennessee Supreme Court's Rules of Conduct.

FACT: I can't find anybody, in any division of law enforcement, who shows an interest (or is honestly willing) to take a criminal report and investigate state and federal felony crimes committed by Middle Tennessee Judges, court clerks, and their buddies, regardless of their reputation, past criminal history, the disrepute of known associates, and the credence of the complaints. Even with an absurd amount of clear and convincing evidence, unless there is some disgraceful sexual component, causing the court tremendous embarrassment. It is as if every other "color of law" crime has now become tolerable, accepted, to be backed and even covered-up by other members of the court, and other courts, unless there is a paramount obscene sexual component which can not be hidden or denied.

I have found nothing but resistance and push-back to every honest effort I have made to promote transparency and accountability within the State of Tennessee's judiciary and their courts.

I believe this practice exhibits an intolerable level of professional negligence (by those who know the risks), while also being fundamentally unconstitutional. Still it remains a fact regardless. The current corruption and felony criminal misconduct which is reasonably irrefutable in this case, is also socially unsustainable, unjustifiable, and honestly uncorrectable without the judiciary's good faith, swift, and affirmative involvement in demanding, providing, and enforcing a reasonable remedy.

Mr. Fenton,

The transcript will reflect that we had no verification of a date that you sold the property and there was no prejudice to you whatsoever as you had just mentioned this in your multiple page pleadings that you filed on the morning of the hearing 8/29/19.

You are welcome and should provide proof of when you sold the TV and dehumidifier as this will be addressed at the final hearing.

The Judge made the decision that you will take personal clothing, your jewelry and toiletries/medication only. He went over that several times with you.

You were not able to complete certain tasks in order to have the house ready for the auctioneers and at this point we will just have to store the items that you tag that you would like.

Remember whatever the storage fee is you will most likely have to pay out of your share of the proceeds so do not tag anything that you want the auctioneer to sale please. The more you sale the less you have to haul to Michigan. The proceeds from the sale of the real property and the proceeds from the sale of the furniture will be deposited into the clerk's office for save keeping.

Please note that our office is closed Monday for a holiday so we appreciate your not emailing after office hours which are 8 to 5 pm.

Thanks,
Virginia

FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Adopted Effective September 1, 2004
As Amended Through September 1, 2017
And Further Amended March 1, 2019

INTRODUCTION

JUDGES. The 21st Judicial District embraces Hickman, Lewis, Perry, and Williamson Counties. All Judges of the 21st Judicial District have full civil and criminal jurisdiction therein and are assigned areas of responsibility by the Presiding Judge.

CLERKS. Each county within the District has a Circuit Court Clerk and a Clerk and Master with powers and duties prescribed by statute for such offices generally. The Clerk and Master is also clerk of the Probate Division of the Chancery Court.

Rule 11. Orders and Judgments

Section 11.01 Preparation and Submission

Unless the court directs otherwise, attorneys for prevailing parties will prepare proposed orders for entry by the court and shall file such proposed orders not more than seven (7) days following the day on which the ruling is made by the court. If the proposed order submitted reflects that it has been approved for entry by counsel for all parties, then the court will take action promptly to enter such proposed order, or, at the court's discretion, enter the court's own order with respect to the ruling. If the proposed order does not reflect that it has been approved for entry by counsel for all parties, then the court will take no action to enter such proposed order for seven (7) days after receipt of the proposed order to afford counsel for the opposing party to submit an alternative proposed order. If the opposing party submits an alternative proposed order, the court shall undertake promptly to enter either the original proposed order, the alternative proposed order, or the court's own order with respect to the ruling. All of the time periods in this section may, for good cause, be extended by the court.

A party's approval for entry of a proposed order, which does not by its express terms state that it is an agreed order, shall not be construed as anything other than the party's agreement that the proposed order accurately reflects the court's ruling on the particular matter and shall not be construed to imply that party's agreement with or consent to the ruling set out in the proposed order.

ORDER FROM AUGUST 29, 2019 HEARING

EX PARTE ORDER OF PROTECTION EXTENDED PENDING FINAL HEARING, RESETTING MOTION FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER OF PROTECTION, WAIVING MEDIATION AND SETTING FINAL HEARING, ORDER TO VACATE AND ORDER ALLOWING WIFE TO SIGN ALL NECESSARY CONTRACTS TO COMPLETE THE SALE OF THE MARITAL HOME AND CLOSING

This matter came on to be heard on the 29th day of August, 2019 before the Honorable Michael W. Binkley, Judge holding Court for the Chancery Court of Williamson County, Tennessee, upon Wife's Motion for Violation of Ex Parte Order of Protection and for Date Certain for Walk Through of House and Motion for Scheduling Order. It appearing to the Court based upon arguments of counsel, statements of Husband representing himself Pro Se, and the record as a whole that the following shall be the Order of this Court. FYI... my opposing counsel (Virginia Story) WROTE this "Order". This does NOT match "the record as a whole". Please compare the 8/1 & 8/29 Transcripts!

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Husband was again

No Choice! Court Deprived Husband of ALL HIS Assets & Income! Deemed "uncollectible" once house was gone! advised of the risks of proceeding Pro Se and that he is required to comply with the rules just as an attorney is required. Husband acknowledged that he understood and wishes to proceed Pro Se.

The "OP" meant NOTHING but LEVERAGE! ALL they wanted was MY HOUSE and ME OUT of it! The Motion for Violation of the Order of Protection will be continued pending further Orders of the Court as Husband had filed a very lengthy response on the morning of the hearing being The alleged "Order of Protection" was just used (and still is) for EXTORTION, to BIND and SILENCE me! August 29, 2019. The Motion for Violation of the Order of Protection will be reset with the Final

I understood the term "the Final Hearing in this cause" to be referring to the issues WE had DISCUSSED to date, Hearing in this cause set for October 21, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The Motion for Scheduling Order and to Waive Mediation in this cause is appropriate and the same is granted. the results of our Auction & "OP".

AT NO TIME did I understand this to involve the END of our DIVORCE, as we hadn't even BEGUN DISCOVERY yet, which I spent over an hour on the phone with my last counsel to learn how to navigate myself. (Call is recorded as proof!) PLUS Attorney Story had granted my Counsel an EXTENTION (which I have evidence of) on filing the "Divorce Answer and Counter Complaint", so that she could focus on her primary agenda, which was TAKING MY HOUSE!

SO much HORRIBLE FAITH, dishonesty, deceit, bullying, legal trickery, discrimination, bias, all GAMES with NO regard for JUSTICE, that ALL PLEADINGS must do SUBSTANTIAL JUSTICE, with NO RESPECT for ANY RULE OF LAW or my LIFE!

The Ex Parte Order of Protection shall remain in full force pending further hearing in this cause set for October 21, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. The form "Order Extending Ex Parte/Temporary Order of Protection" shall be executed and forwarded to the appropriate authorities.

✘ Husband signed the listing agreement for the martial home with the Auctioneer, FORCED TO SIGN BY JUDGE BINKLEY, UNDER THE THREAT OF INCARCERATION, without even READING IT!
